

Colerne Church of England Primary School

Privacy Notice for Visitors

Under data protection law, individuals have a right to be informed about how the school uses any personal data that we hold about them. We comply with this right by providing 'privacy notices' (sometimes called 'fair processing notices') to individuals where we are processing their personal data.

This privacy notice explains how we collect, store and use personal data about individuals visiting the school.

This privacy notice is aimed at occasional and professional visitors to the school. Your name and contact number will be written in the school diary.

Parents/Carers visiting the school to drop off their child in the morning or collect their child at the end of the day, are not classed as visitors.

Parents/Carers visiting the school or who come to the school office to collect their child during the school day, or to pay dinner monies or make enquiries are not classed as visitors.

We, Colerne Church of England Primary School, are the 'data controller' for the purposes of data protection law.

The personal data we hold

The personal data that we may collect, use, store and share (where appropriate) about you includes, but is not restricted to:

Contact details and contact preferences

If a regular professional visitor evidence that the individual holds an Enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service certificate

Employer details

Photographs

We may also collect, store and use information about you that falls into "special categories" of more sensitive personal data. This includes information about (where applicable): Disability, health and access requirements

Why we use this data

The purpose of processing this data is to help us run the school, including to:

Identify you and safely evacuate the school in the event of an emergency

Meet statutory obligations for Safeguarding

Ensure that appropriate access arrangements can be provided for volunteers who require them

Our lawful basis for using this data

We only collect and use personal information about you when the law allows us to. Most commonly, we use it where we need to:

Comply with a legal obligation

Carry out a task in the public interest

Where we have legitimate interests in processing the data – for example, the use of photographs to enable us to clearly identify you in the event of an emergency evacuation

Less commonly, we may also use personal information about you where:

You have given us consent to use it in a certain way

We need to protect your vital interests (or someone else's interests). Where you have provided us with consent to use your data, you may withdraw this consent at any time. We will make this clear when requesting your consent, and explain how you go about withdrawing consent if you wish to do so.

Some of the reasons listed above for collecting and using personal information about you overlap, and there may be several grounds which justify the school's use of your data.

Collecting this information

While the majority of information we collect from you is mandatory, there is some information that you can choose whether or not to provide to us.

Whenever we seek to collect information from you, we make it clear whether you must provide this information (and if so, what the possible consequences are of not complying), or whether you have a choice.

How we store this data

Personal data is stored in line with our Records Management Policy. This is based on the Information and Records Management Society's toolkit for schools.

We maintain a visitor management system to store personal information about all visitors. The information contained in this file is kept secure and is only used for purposes directly relevant to work with the school.

When this information is no longer required, we will delete your information in accordance with our Retention Policy.

Data sharing

We do not share information about you with any third party without your consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

Where it is legally required, or necessary (and it complies with data protection law) we may share personal information about you with:

Our local authority – if we have any concerns over safeguarding
 Suppliers and service providers – to enable them to provide the service we have contracted them for, such as visitor management systems
 Police forces, courts – to assist them discharging their legal duties

Transferring data internationally

Where we transfer personal data to a country or territory outside the European Economic Area, we will do so in accordance with data protection law.

Your rights

How to access personal information we hold about you

Individuals have a right to make a 'subject access request' to gain access to personal information that the school holds about them.

If you make a subject access request, and if we do hold information about you, we will:

Give you a description of it

Tell you why we are holding and processing it, and how long we will keep it for

Explain where we got it from, if not from you

Tell you who it has been, or will be, shared with

Let you know whether any automated decision-making is being applied to the data, and any consequences of this Give you a copy of the information in an intelligible form

You may also have the right for your personal information to be transmitted electronically to another organisation in certain circumstances.

If you would like to make a request, please contact our data protection officer.

Your other rights regarding your data

Under data protection law, individuals have certain rights regarding how their personal data is used and kept safe. You have the right to:

Object to the use of your personal data if it would cause, or is causing, damage or distress

Prevent your data being used to send direct marketing

Object to the use of your personal data for decisions being taken by automated means (by a computer or machine, rather than by a person)

In certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data corrected, deleted or destroyed, or restrict processing

Claim compensation for damages caused by a breach of the data protection regulations

To exercise any of these rights, please contact our data protection officer.
